Gossip

Yes thats right the Ashwell Scoop is back and its got a lot to inform you about but first thank you Lexi and Olwen for being the leaders for it. So this term there is a lot going on such as : the panto , year 6 Christmas bazaar and bonfire night, it is all so exciting. Time to talk about the Christmas bazaar. This year we are trying to do more thrilling things like new games (but we have 2 face paint stands) , new prizes and all within a budget of £10 and of course MORE FUN ! You might have guessed it's the season for the Christmas Nativity which means the merry season is coming and we all get to see some mini Marys and Josephs . And yes we are going back to the pantomime and this year it's Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs. I can't wait and I bet neither can you. Remember it's the season to buy a poppy so bring in a pound and look for them in the playground. That's all for this report but in the next Ashwell Scoop remember to look for school gossip and trends.

The Christmas Bazaar

The school's annual Christmas Bazaar will be held on Thursday 26th November in our school hall. Year 6 pupils will be hosting a variety of stalls, providing fun and exciting activities for everyone (from reception to year 5). The money raised will be put towards school projects and activities that will benefit everybody.

This year, I believe that the Christmas Bazaar will be the best one yet. No two or more celebrations will ever be the same, but, I think we can all agree, every year gets better and better than before. This bazaar, the stalls include: drinks, stickers, games and much more. The Christmas bazaar has always been a fun, decorative version of our school hall, yet still safe and caring for all ages of children and adults.

Preparations are well underway and groups have been chosen. Each two to four people have set ideas for stalls already, after an initial planning and grouping session.

I spoke to a year 6 student who told me, "I've really been looking forward to running the Bazaar since my first experience of one. I'm SOOOO excited that it's finally my turn!"

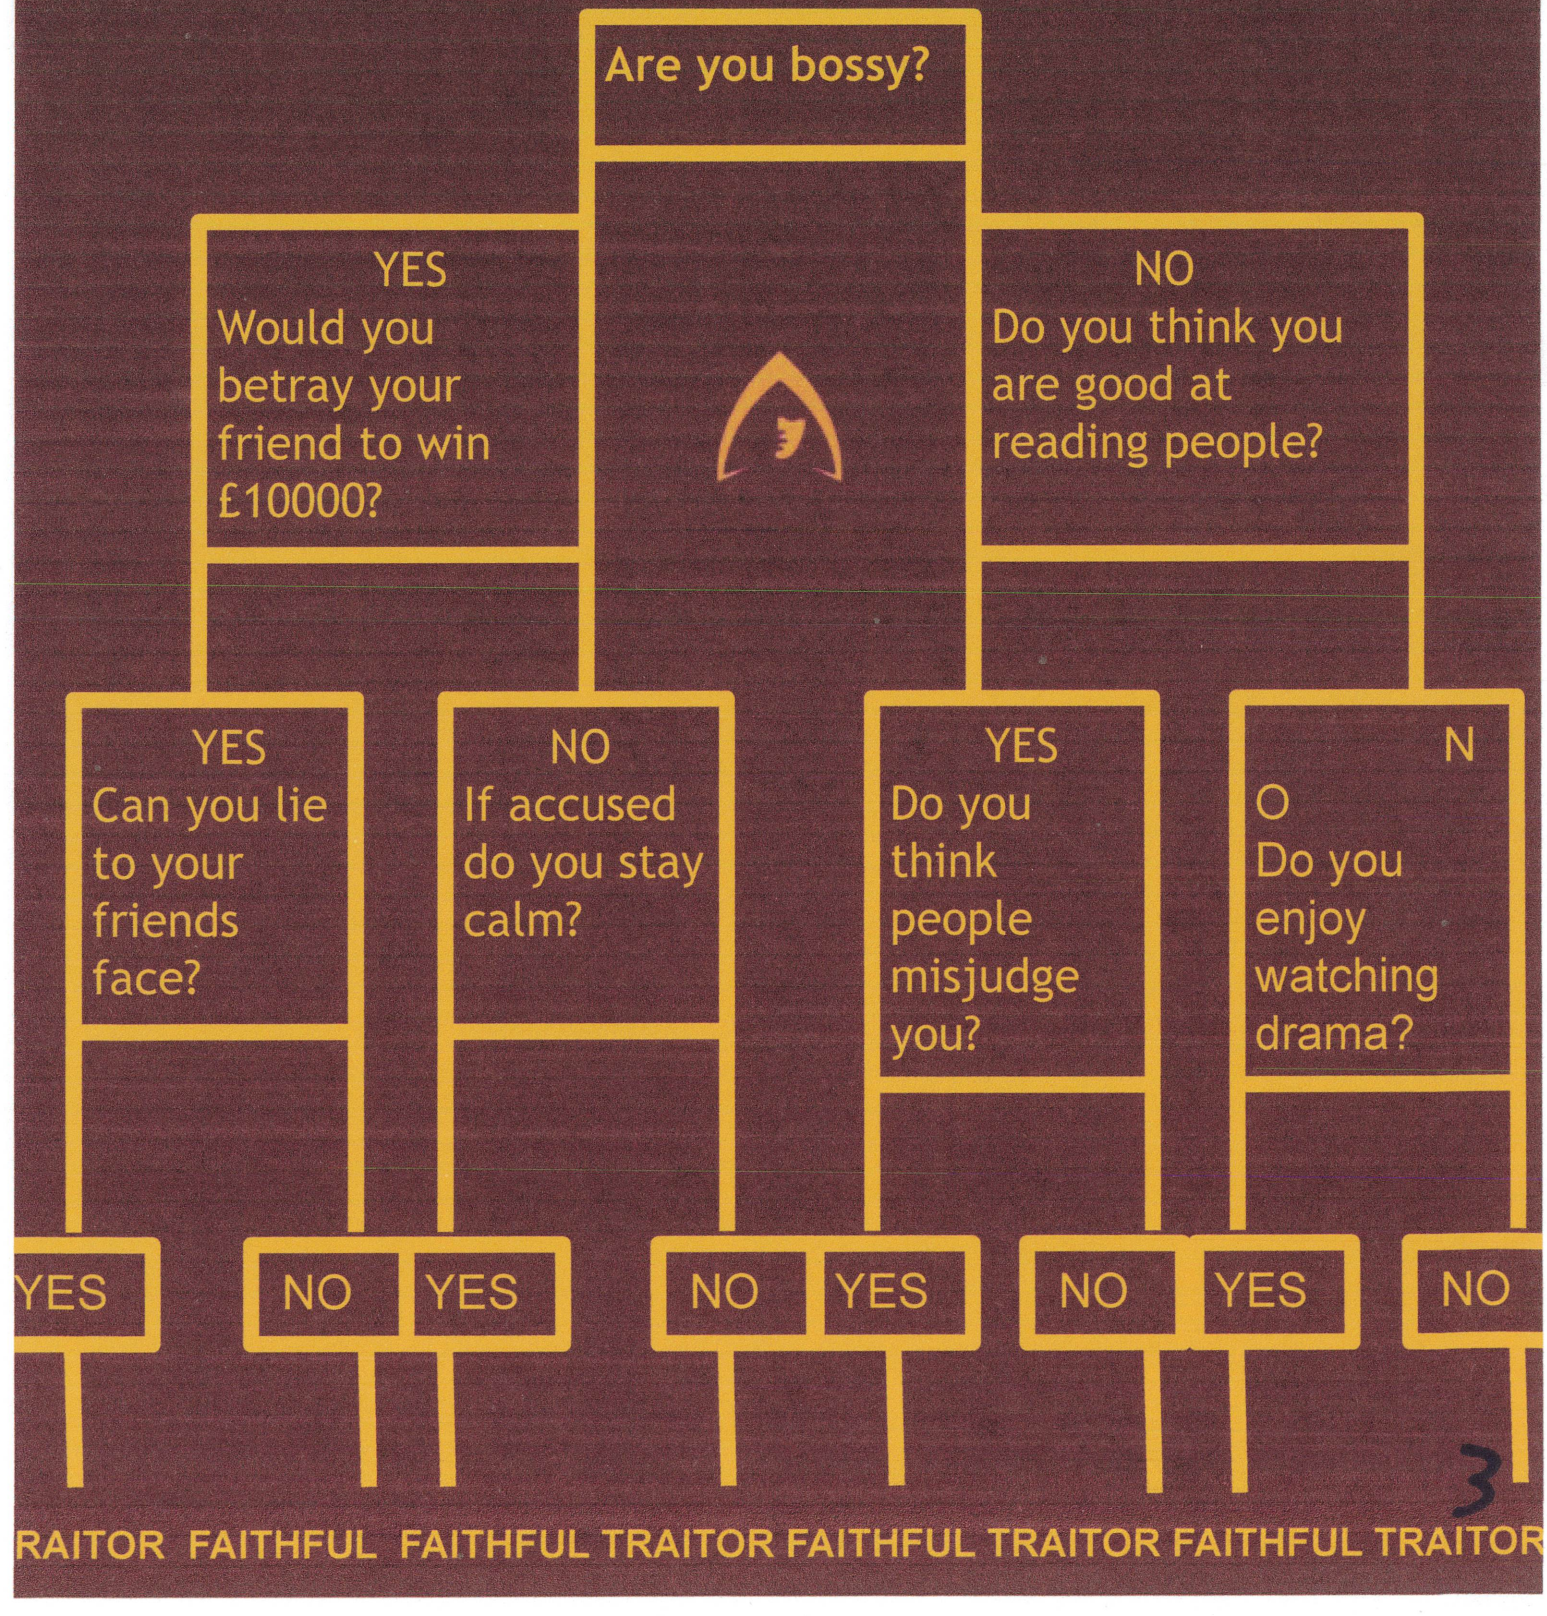

Parents are able to purchase strips of 6 to 12 50p stickers for children to spend on stalls of their choice.

THE DARK SECRET OF THE GLOWING STONE

Ben ran as fast as a cheetah clutching the glowing stone tightly in his hand. Behind him something enormous roared. "AAARGH!" Ben shrieked while running. He just knew he needed to get away from this enormous shadow following him. He didn't want to wait and find out what it was and what it wanted. The mysterious stone's glow started to flicker with every step Ben took. He had no idea where he was going.

Ben stumbled upon a cave between two massive trees. Without a doubt, he sprinted straight into the cave. Inside the cave, there was lots of sparkling rocks and bats hanging upside down.

He cautiously began walking forwards, his emerald eyes fixed to the stone. At that moment, like magic the magical glow of the stone faded away. Ben pondered, "What just happened? What am I going to do now?"
He continued wandering around the cave, it seemed like hours had passed by. Ben stopped walking, "This is the same place I started from. Maybe I wasn't concentrating. I'll just start to walk around the cave again. Maybe that will reignite the stone."

Something caught his eye. Ben walked towards it. It was a rusty, old doorbell that said 'RING FOR HELP"
He hesitated but pressed the button.
"Who put it there? It wasn't there before. What is going to happen now?"
Ben's mind was going crazy with all sorts of thoughts.

Ding... Dong... Ding... Dong
"Maybe it was wrong to press the doorbell?"
He sat down on the icy, cold floor looking at the stone in his hand hopelessly. His heart started beating fast. Ben knew he should get out of the cave. Something inside him kept telling him to leave. He got up and started to walk. Then he heard his name in a whisper, "Ben..."

Wellbeing ambassadors chosen!

The year 6 wellbeing ambassadors have been selected by Mrs Andrews. They are: Eleanor, Bea, Kiran, India, Martha, Cora, Imogen P, Jack H, Olwen and India. Look out for their bright yellow badges and high vis jackets if you would like to talk to them. Kiran, one of the ambassadors, told the Scoop about how she felt.

"I was so happy to be chosen. I thought they were going to choose someone else but they actually chose me! I was so happy and proud." We asked how she felt about the other ambassadors and how she was feeling about her future as an ambassador.
"I love the people i'm working with, they are all amazing people! I am really looking forward to my work as an ambassador as I love helping people!"

One of the ambassadors wearing their badge.

The wellbeing ambassadors will be at chill and chat on Tuesday lunchtimes, and will help you if you have a worry. But it doesn't always have to be at Chill and Chat. If you are worried about something during the week, the wellbeing ambassadors will be able to help you. If you come up to them and ask for a chat, they will always be happy to help.
